EXAMINER'S AMENDMENT

An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

Authorization for this examiner's amendment was given in a telephone interview with Kate Murashige on April 20, 2004.

The following claims have been amended:

1. (Amended) An isolated STEAP-2 protein ~~having~~ comprising an amino acid sequence shown in FIG.9. (SEQ. ID. NO:6).

44. (Amended) An isolated STEAP-2 protein ~~having~~ comprising an amino acid sequence encoded by ATCC deposit: PTA-311.

46. (Amended) A kit ~~for inducing an immunological response, which kit comprises a carrier compartmentalized to receive, in close confinement, one or more containers, wherein one of said containers comprises~~ comprising the composition of Claim 45.

Art Unit: 1642

48. (Amended) A kit for ~~inducing an immunological response, which kit comprises a carrier compartmentalized to receive, in close confinement, one or more containers, wherein one of said containers comprises~~ comprising the composition of Claim 47.

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: Based on the evidence presented in Applicant's declarations, it appears that the STEAP-2 polypeptide of SEQ ID NO:6 would be diagnostic of colon cancer since the expression of STEAP-2 was nearly 3-4 folds greater in colon cancer versus normal colon cells. Furthermore, based on Applicants' presentation of the successful immunohistological detection of the polypeptide in prostate and lung tissues, the data reasonably suggest that expression of the STEAP-2 polypeptide would parallel the differential mRNA expression of STEAP-2 observed in both normal and cancerous colon tissue.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
